

Artistic Biography
Caro Trischler – Singer

Born July 3, 1995, in Karlsruhe, currently based in Mainz

Caro Trischler sings and performs on jazz stages across Germany. Her specialty is the subtle, quiet sound that effortlessly and confidently flows in both English and Portuguese. In 2020, she completed her studies in jazz vocals at the Mainz School of Music. She is active as a singer in various bands and formations, spanning genres from jazz to folk. In the summer of 2020, she released her debut album “North e Sul” in collaboration with jazz pianist Ulf Kleiner. Her second album, “When You Know You Know” will be released in May 2025.

Trischler's musical journey began at a young age, playing piano at home and teaching herself guitar, before taking formal voice lessons at the age of 12. She also started performing at that age. At 17, in 2013, she made it to the semifinals of the third season of The Voice of Germany. After the show, she toured through large stadiums across Germany.

While studying jazz vocals at the Mainz School of Music, she was introduced to jazz, soul, country, bluegrass, and Brazilian music. She developed a passion for Brazilian music by João Gilberto and Elis Regina, as well as discovering soul and classic country songs by Glen Campbell and Harry Nilsson.

Her musical path has been paved by several scholarships, including the Initiative for Future scholarship of Rhineland-Palatinate (ZIRP) in 2015 and Yehudi Menuhin Live Music Now in 2018. From 2018 to 2020, Caro Trischler was a member of the vocal ensemble of the German Federal Jazz Orchestra (BuJazzO). In December 2019, she performed with Mainz jazz pianist and composer Sebastian Sternal, New York bassist Larry Grenadier, and Cologne drummer Jonas Burgwinkel. From 2024 to 2025, she is supported by the Get Ready For Take Off program by the RAKETEREI musician network.

On July 3, 2020, Caro Trischler released her first album, “North e Sul”, a musical journey blending soul, jazz, and country, from North to South America, all the way to Brazilian music. Together with producer and pianist Ulf Kleiner, she carefully selected and arranged a mix of their favorite songs, ranging from solo performances to full quartet arrangements. They recorded the album in 2019 at the Summer Residence Studio in Mainz. Two tracks on the album were recorded live at Klangraum Studio.

For her second album, Trischler and Kleiner teamed up once again, staying true to their unique blend of genres and signature sound. They wrote original compositions, most of them in English, with two songs in Portuguese. Over the course of two years, the album “When You Know You Know” was created and will be released on May 2, 2025.

In addition to her own formation, the Caro Trischler Trio, Trischler is a singer in various other bands, such as the Ali Neander Organ Quartet (with the record ‘Jazz: Songs’ released in October 2020), the band of drummer Julian Camargo (with the record ‘Songs About Being Young’ released in April 2021), and the band of pianist Jan Felix May. In 2021 and 2022, she contributed to two albums by the band DePhazz. Since 2021, she has also been the vocalist for Ramblin’ Bird, a project by guitarist Christoph Neuhaus (Landesjazzpreis Baden-Württemberg 2021). The vinyl album ‘The Underground Raconteur’ was released in November 2023.

Bio (Tabular)

2013	Semifinalist on The Voice of Germany Season 3, performed with Katy Perry, followed by a nationwide tour across Germany (2013/2014)
2013	Released the first single " Burned Out " and a cover of " Boys of Summer ", recorded at Valicon Studio in Berlin
2014–2020	Studied Jazz & Popular Music with a major in vocals and a minor in piano at the University of Music Mainz, with teachers such as Alexander Gelhausen, Jesse Milliner, and Sebastian Sternal
2015	Scholarship recipient from the Initiative for Future of Rhineland-Palatinate (ZIRP)
2017	Rotary Cultural Award
2018–2020	Member of the German Federal Jazz Orchestra ( BuJazzO ), with concert tours to Montenegro, Albania, and Bosnia-Herzegovina
2018–2022	Scholarship recipient of Yehudi Menuhin Live Music Now Frankfurt a.M.
2019	Formed own quartet/trio with Ulf Kleiner – Rhodes, Jean-Philippe Wadle – bass, and Max Jentzen – drums
2019	Received the Lions Club Oppenheim and Bernhardt Foundation Award
2019	Singer for the band of jazz pianist Jan Felix May
July 2020	Release of debut album " North e Sul " on Klangraum Records
December 2019	Performed with the Sebastian Sternal-Larry Grenadier-Jonas Burgwinkel Trio
2020–2024	Vocal teacher at Niedernhausen Music School
October 2020	Release of ' Jazz: Songs ' with the Ali Neander Organ Quartet on ESC Records (Ali Neander – guitar, Ralf Gustke – drums, Robert Schippers – organ)
December 2020	Contributed to " Music To Unpack Your Christmas Present " by DePhazz
April 2021	Release of " Songs About Being Young " with Julian Camargo on DMG Germany
2021	Singer for Christoph Neuhaus' Ramblin' Bird (Landesjazzpreis Baden-Württemberg 2021)
2021	Contributed to the album ' Jelly Banquet ' by DePhazz and video production for the single " Which Way to Go "
November 2023	Release of the vinyl album ' The Underground Raconteur ' with Ramblin' Bird
2021–present	Vocal coach for privat lessons and various workshops
2024–2025	Supported by the Get Ready For Take Off program by RAKETEREI & Get Response
May 2, 2025	Release of the second album " When You Know You Know " on Klangraum Records